

Test name: Politics and Religion 1

Question 1 of 20

America is a Christian Nation no matter who you ask.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 2 of 20

Christians should stay out of politics.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 3 of 20

Christians should stand for their "party" no matter what.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 4 of 20

Christians should compromise their Biblical convictions for the sake of their favorite candidate.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 5 of 20

A political candidate may visit and speak at a church without any recourse from the IRS.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 6 of 20

A church in the U.S. lost its "tax exempt" status because of paid political adds.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 7 of 20

A church (as a group) should not endorse any particular candidate.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 8 of 20

A church as a group can not preach against sins that fall under political positions (such as homosexuality, or abortion).

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 9 of 20

A church can not require its staff and employees to live moral lives based on their beliefs.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 10 of 20

A church can not require employees to vote for a certain party or candidate.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 11 of 20

A Pastor or clergy can pay a candidate to speak, or contribute to a campaign fund, but a church group can not.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 12 of 20

Gods word says to obey earthly rulers, so we must comply under any circumstance and comply with any law.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 13 of 20

Obeying the laws of the land are a matter of preference or personal conscience. If our political ideology disagrees, we are free to take a stand against laws that we believe are invalid.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 14 of 20

A LifeWay Research survey found that only 19 percent of respondents consider America to be a Christian nation.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 15 of 20

Close to 69 percent of the people surveyed said that is a "Nation of Many Religions." Another 9 percent suggested it is a secular nation.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 16 of 20

Gods law (from the Bible) always over rides secular, national or state laws.

---

- A) True

B) False

Question 17 of 20

Muslims want to impose Sharia law according to the Quran, in every nation.

---

A) True

B) False

Question 18 of 20

Biblical Values and principles must be more important than political platforms and Campaigns.

---

A) True

B) False

Question 19 of 20

No one in the Bible ever Campaigned for anything.

---

A) True

B) False

Question 20 of 20

8 examples are given for people campaigned in the Bible.

---

A) True

B) False