

Native American Prayer – (scriptural)

Great Spirit, Creator of all things and Father from above the heavens;
Your purposes and plans were formed before us and will remain after us, they are greater than any living thing, or season that comes and goes on this land.

You are like the wind that no one can predict, a great mystery, yet you speak to us in visions and dreams and show us your ways.

You speak your word, and we know your truth.

Today we need provision from your hand and we will accept the source by which you send it. We will return thanks and be caretakers of the resources that give life.

When people from another tribe or those from our own community do wrong in your site, help us to forgive and live at peace.

You have made the way to be restored through Yahweh and we will follow His path.

We long for the day to walk with you after this temporary life is over.

Until that day comes, Help us to point the way to You, for You alone give life and peace.

AMEN
